

ONE RIVER. ETHICS MATTER.

ETHICS AND THE COLUMBIA RIVER TREATY

Righting Historic Wrongs

Join US for a one-day conference to reflect on the impact of the dam-building era on the Columbia Basin. We will discuss ways to modernize the Columbia River Treaty as we seek to establish a water ethic as foundational for resolving international water conflicts.

Conference is FREE to attend and lunch is provided.

SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

Bishop Emeritus William Skylstad
Leotis McCormack
Virgil Seymour
Crystal Spicer
Wilbur Slockish
Bob Heinth
Aaron Wolfe
Rachael Paschal Osborn
John Osborn
Paul Lumely
Mary Wood
Paul Louis Metzger
Rev. George Gray
Carol Dempsey, O.P.
Rabbi Seidel

SPONSORED BY:

ATRIA; Center for Environmental Law & Policy; Citizens for a Clean Columbia; Columbia Institute for Water Policy; Columbia River Inter-Tribal Fish Commission; Columbia Riverkeeper; Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon; Francis Maltby; Loo Wit Group, Sierra Club; Okanagan Nation Alliance; Oregon Chapter, Sierra Club; Oregon Synod, Evangelical Lutheran Church in America; Pacific Rivers Council; The Roskelley Family; Salmo Watershed Streamkeepers Society; Save Our Wild Salmon; University of Portland's Environmental Studies Department, Garaventa Center for Catholic Intellectual Life and American Culture, McNerney-Hanson Chair in Ethics, Molter Chair in Science, Sweo Chair in Engineering; Upper Columbia United Tribes; Upper Snake River Tribes Foundation; Washington State Backcountry Hunters and Anglers; WaterWatch of Oregon

SATURDAY,
OCTOBER 24, 2015
8:00 A.M. – 4:00 P.M.

UNIVERSITY OF PORTLAND
BUCKLEY CENTER AUDITORIUM

RSVP by October 16
Contact Belgin Inan
inanb@up.edu
503.943.8342

University of Portland

More information at: www.celp.org/ethics-portland/